

We're hiring a Graphic Designer

About the role

We're looking for a Design Superstar who understands all aspects of branding, digital and print. Someone with a passion for graphic design, able to translate their ideas into beautifully crafted, emotively engaging work.

Our services offer logo and brand development, marketing, brochures, packaging, web design, UI/UX, POS and 3D spaces/exhibitions. We work with clients from entrepreneurial start-ups to well established companies, so you will have the opportunity to work across multiple industries as well as national, and sometimes international, markets.

As part of a creative team, you will have at least 2 years experience and have had experience presenting your work in client meetings. In addition, any experience working within a multi-disciplinary environment would be preferable. Our agency is a mixed design led team of graphic, digital, motion, and packaging designers – so you will not only gain knowledge of all aspects of our agency but your role will be varied day to day.

Proficiency using Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Illustrator and Adobe InDesign is a must. Basic knowledge of any web / email marketing platforms and Adobe XD would be valuable but not crucial for consideration.

- Meeting directly with clients and being able to articulate yourself and your work clearly.
- Working with new clients under the guidance of senior members of the team to develop strong design solutions and creatively challenge a brief across multiple applications.
- Liaise with existing, established clients regarding their continuous branding needs, following client brief and brand guidelines as well as responding to new briefs.
- Working to client deadlines and consistently delivering a high standard of work.
